

Tikokino Primary School Newsletter

Tikokino 100%
- Today, Tomorrow, Together

Phone: 06 8565 833
office@tikokino.school.nz
Principal: Hamish Natusch

Term 4, Week 7 25th-29th November 2024

Dear Parents, Caregivers & Friends,

Another busy week is passing us by as the run into the end of the year is well and truly underway.

Last week we were fortunate to have a local author, David Walker, visit school and share his journey to becoming an author and also a few pages from his novel, Jack and The Trees. Thank you to Judy Mathews who is a past student of Tikokino, for organising the visit.

We really enjoyed the Ongaonga School Production on Monday. Thank you to all parents who helped with transport.

This week we had Gemma Douglas come and work with our senior class. Gemma focused on breathing techniques to help students, in a variety of situations, to regulate their breathing to maximise health and performance.

We look forward to Room 1's Camp at school tomorrow evening. The weather looks pretty good at this stage.

On Tuesday we are off to the annual Elsthorpe Cricket Tournament. I look forward to sharing how we go.

Our Bus Monitors are off to Splash Planet on Wednesday next week. Those involved have received info regarding this. For those who don't know, we accidentally sent them up to a closed Splash Planet one month ago!

We'd love to see everyone at the celebration of Anne Frater's 43 years of teaching. Please RSVP to office.

Have a great weekend everyone.

Regards,
Hamish.

On Friday last week Georgia, Tadhg and Gine went to Havelock North to take part at the 2024 Primary School Ukulele Festival. It was an amazing experience and so much fun to play 10 songs together with several hundred other students.

Author, David Walker, shares a few pages from his novel.

Gemma Douglas working with our senior students on breathing techniques.

Thank you to Ongaonga School for hosting us at their production Star Warts, The Umpre Strikes Back!